YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, April 5 .- Manager Charles Hazen, who will pilot the Youngstown club of the Inter-state league this season, is in the city arrangleague this season, is in the city arranging for the laying out of the grounds and orection of grand standing and buildings. The players will be notified to appear here April 15 for practice. It is probable that Hazen will take care of right garden and Russell the left field, while winters will hold down the initial lag. Winters is claimed by Toledo, but as Hazen first lad claim to his services he will probably be sent here. Andrews, of Cleveland, will over third base, and old Joe Ardner, of Cleveland, will be short stop. O'Neill and Barnes have been signed as twirlers. Hazen said: "We will have a team here that will either carry of the pennant or be a good second. In any event, it will defeat New Castle.

It will come distinctly as a surprise to learn that Mr. Louis S. Delaplaine, owner of the Wheeling franchise in the owner of the Wheeling franchise in the Inter-state base ball league, may throw up the sponge in a day or two. Yet this may be his course. It has been generally supposed that in the event he cannot secure grounds on the Island he would accept the inevitable and take the Irwin site on the South Side. Last inkit. Mr. Delaplaine said he would take the Irwin grounds under no consideration. This morning he will have a final talk with Mr. Henry Schmulhach regarding the old park. It nothing can be done there, he will see Mrs. Stone, the owner of the Stone site on the Island. This, it is believed, can be secured. If not, then there, is the littledenated in property in Astnayille. With a five-cent fare on the street carline, the after would be as good as any. Mr. Delaplaine says if the grounds question is not settled by Tuesday he will throw up the sponge. This course will insure the disruption of the Inter-state league, probably.

THE OHIO ELECTIONS.

Martin's Ferry, Sellaire and Bridge

Over the river in Ohlo, there will be over the river in Onio, there will be municipal elections in the three river-front towns, Martin's Ferry, Bellaire and Bridgeport, to-day. Political lines are drawn as usual, except that in Martin's Ferry the "goo-goo," or good government movement has taken a hand. The situation is reviewed below:

Independence will cut somewhat of a figure at to-day's election in Martin's Ferry. Judging from the sentiment, an unusually large number will vote for the man and not for the party. Many partisans have been talking this way for some time. It is safe to predict that there will be much scratching. The campaign has been a remarkable one, and a big vote wil be polled. The speakers for both sides have greatly stirred up matters. The voting will be commenced in the different precincts at 6:30 fast time and will close at 6:30 fast time.

The following voting places sen designated: First ward-V he following voting places have been designated: First ward—William Sloan's carpenter shop, Madison street, Second ward—Issac Jones' store, cor-ner Catawba and Washington streets, Third ward—City building, Fourth ward—J. T. Hanes' dwelling house, Fourth street, north of Hanover, Fifth ward—Hose house.

The election in Bellaire to-daw will bring out a pretty full vote, perhaps, as the contest for mayor, city treasurer, members of the school board and some of the ward contests are exciting much interest. All of the other places are conceded to be sure things for the Republican nominees. There will be done by one party alone, and it will only be known how much of a figure the scratching cuts when the votes are counted. The campaign has been quiet and decent in the main and the Kangaroo verdict will decide the fate of the aspirants by sundown this evening.

Over in Bridgeport a full city ticket will be elected. There are two tickets in the field, Democratic and Republican. It is conceded the Republicans will win by the usual safe majority.

Rev. Sam Small, the eloquent southern evangelist, will deliver a lecture at the Grand Opera House to-night, his subject being "The Living Issues of Present Day Politics." The lecture is not a political harangue, but a practical, patriote and wity dissertation upon current topics of national importance, especially of the ballot, immigration, education and intemperance. Mr. Small is one of the wittlest and most entertaining talkers now on the American platform, and draws great crowds in all the great cities.

The Washington Post says: "This lecture is a masterpiece of wit and patriotic philosophy, and it will do any loyal American good to hear it and ponder its facts."

The prices to-night are made popular, at fifteen and twenty-five cents, and the orator and the subject should leave only standing room in the house.
